

Montreal, June 21, 2004

Dear Award Winners, Nominees and guests,

Thank you for attending the 2004 ProMontreal Entrepreneurs Awards.

The PROMIES recognize business acumen, talent, creativity and the community spirit of young Jewish entrepreneurs in the Montreal business community. We are very proud to have received such an impressive list of well deserved nominations and applications for this years awards. This reflects both the strength and impact of Montreal's Jewish business community and the hard work of the entire PROMIES committee.

Your experience this evening is the result of months of hard work, planning, fundraising and deliberation by a very impressive group of Jewish Montreal businessmen and women. On behalf of the Jewish Chamber of Commerce and its members, we would like to recognize the extraordinary efforts of the PROMIES committee, led by the inspiration and dedication of its Co-Chairs: Lloyd Segal, Jonathan Goodman, Mitch Greenspoon and Stephan Ouaknine.

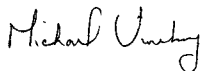

The PROMIES would not exist without the time, energy and effort that all of tonight's nominees and award winners have put into their businesses. Regardless of what stage your business is at, being nominated for a PROMIE is a clear sign that you are on the right track. Mazel Tov to all of tonight's winners. You should be as proud of yourself as the community is of you.

We hope you enjoy your evening and go home with a renewed sense of pride towards the strength and vibrancy of Montreal's Jewish business community.

See you next year,

Karen Soussan
